THE WEST HAVEN TWILIGHT LEAGUE ELECTS 2010 EXECUTIVE BOARD
AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

At a recent meeting The West Haven Twilight League elected its Executive Board and Board of Directors for the 2010 season. Most notably, Joe Ciaburri, former Chief Executive Officer of the Bank of Southern Connecticut, takes over as Chairman of the Board. The position was previously held by West Haven native and long time Twilight League supporter Bob Greenwood for the past 20 years. Ciaburri has been involved with the league in a variety of positions in the past including league president, team sponsor and Gold Bat Award recipient. As Chairman of the Board, Ciaburri will lead the Executive Board and Board of Directors as well as oversee league operations.

The rest of the Executive Board includes: President –Vin DiLauro, Vice President – Harry Noyes, Vice President of Operations – Rick Ferris, Commissioner – Vito DeVito, Assistant Commissioner – John Carusone, Secretary – Todd Richard, Treasurer – Len Maselli, Director of Coaches and Players – Mark Consorte, Co-Directors of Fund Raising – Bob Moran and Phil Noto. Those elected to the Board of Directors are: Tom “Tinker” Blake, Ken Carney, Don Cretella, Sr., Larry DeLeo, and Nick DeMatties.

The West Haven Twilight League opens its 78th season on Saturday, May 22, 2010. The unlimited age, wood bat league is a part of the National Amateur Baseball Federation and plays its games at Quigley Stadium in West Haven.
