West Haven Twilight League Weekly Recap: May 29 – June 1

Bank of Southern CT 12, O’Keefe’s Baseball Academy 2

The Bank opened the scoring with five runs in the second inning, including two courtesy of a Mike Moras single. In all, eight different players drove in runs for the Bank, while Josh Zeid and Sean Foreman combined to allow just three hits over six innings. O’Keefe’s pitchers struggled throughout the contest allowing 12 walks.

Zingaro & Cretella 6, Columbus Auto Body 5

This game stayed close throughout with Zingaro and Cretella coming out on top in the final frame. Zingaro & Cretella loaded the bases in the top of the seventh courtesy of two hit batsmen and a walk from Columbus pitcher Vin Daurio. Z & C scored what would be the winning run when J.R. Bagley drove in Jeff King, one of Bagley’s three RBI’s in the game.

A-Plus Plumbing 11, Bank of Southern CT 1

A-Plus opened the scoring in the first inning and rolled from there behind the stellar pitching of Justin Cox who went the distance, striking out 14 to earn the victory.

A-Plus Second baseman Jose Ortiz went five-for-five on the night with an RBI and a run scored, and catcher Ryan Cimino came through at the plate with 3 RBI. Tanner Monroe drove in Zach Monroe to earn the lone run for the Bank.

Baybrook Remodelers 3, Columbus Auto Body 2

After trading runs early on, Baybrook’s Karl Derbacher and Mike Capone scored in the fifth inning to take back the lead seal the victory. Baybrook reliever Justin Lawrence secured the win for starter John Artes with two perfect innings, while Will Hill threw a complete game for Columbus.

Bank of Southern CT 6, Zingaro & Cretella 0

The Bank’s Don Sousville was nearly perfect allowing just one hit on his way to a complete game victory. Sousville’s pitching was well supported at the plate as Zach Monroe went 3-4 with two runs scored and Tanner Monroe drove in three.
