

For Immediate Release
Contact: Todd Richard
West Haven Twilight League
(203) 732-3242

West Haven Twilight League Week Three Recap

O'Keefe's Academy 9, Bank of Southern CT 2

O'Keefe's broke the game open in the third scoring seven runs with A.J. Houston, Mike Torello, Mike Heins, Rad Welch, and Chris Flynn all driving in runs in the inning. The Bank's Bill Murray and Zach Monroe each had two hits on the night.

A-Plus Plumbing 3, Baybrook Remodelers 0

In a game that featured only five total hits, A-Plus's Justin Cox impressed on the mound. Cox pitching a complete game and struck out 10 on his way to blanking Baybrook.

O'Keefe's Academy 5, Baybrook Remodelers 4

Baybrook looked poised to take the game carrying a four-run lead into the bottom of the seventh inning. The resilient O'Keefe's side had other ideas and scored 5 runs to complete the unlikely comeback. O'Keefe's Jeff Bradanini and Baybrook's Joe Misinonile each had two RBI on the night.

A-Plus Plumbing 6, Bank of Southern CT 0

A-Plus benefited from another stellar pitching performance, this time from veteran Brian Gouin. The A-Plus hurler allowed just four hits and struck out seven. Gouin was backed up by his offense including Henry Lee's home run and three RBI. Tanner Monroe was the lone bright spot for the Bank going 2-3 at the plate.

Columbus Auto Body 9, Zingaro & Cretella 2

Columbus was consistent at the dish scoring in five of seven innings and Will Hill did the job on the mound. Hill pitched a complete game allowing just two runs. Columbus' Ken Appel and Mark Tamsin each had two RBI to lead the offense. Garrett Walker was the spark for Zingaro & Cretella's offense going 2 for 3 and scoring both runs.

A-Plus Plumbing 6, O'Keefe's Academy 0

A-Plus continued its dominance on the mound with Josh Mc Donald and Pete Moraski combined to strike out 12 for the shutout. Bob Pentino was one of five A-Plus hitters to drive in a run going two for four with two RBI. Mike Torello and Guy Gogliettino each had two hits for O'Keefe's