Columbus jumped out to a 4-0 lead in the first inning with Erik Suraci driving in two runs. Damiani came up big again in the ninth driving in Mark Scarinzi for the go ahead run with a double. Will Hill closed out the ninth inning for a complete game victory.

Bank of Southern CT 4, O'Keefe's Academy 1

O'Keefe's took a quick lead in the first inning with leadoff hitter Chris Flynn scoring on a Jeff Bradanini single. From there it was all Bank. In the bottom of the first Mike Minitier drove in Bill Murray with a double to tie it up. The Bank took the lead in the second courtesy of a Tanner Monroe single that scored Shawn Upton and added another run when Brian Paturas scored on a sacrifice fly by Brendan Moss. Zach Monroe pitched a complete game for the Bank allowing just three hits to earn the win.

A-Plus Plumbing 10, O'Keefe's Academy 4

A-Plus Plumbing continued to generate offense with four players; Alan Barbaro, Jose Ortiz, Bob Pentino, and Tom Rispoli, each scoring twice. Ortiz also drove in three for A-Plus with three other players driving in two a piece. O'Keefe's rallied for four runs in the sixth inning with Sean Chacho, Rick Hudson, and Dustin Minore each driving in a run, but it was not enough to overcome the ten-run deficit. A-Plus' Brian Gouin pitched five innings allowing just one hit and striking out nine for his fifth win of the season.
