West Haven Twilight League Weekly Recap: July 17 - 20

A-Plus Plumbing 6, O'Keefe's Academy 5

In a see-saw battle, A-Plus' came out on top thanks to timely late inning hits. With the score tied in the bottom of the seventh inning, A-Plus loaded the bases and Matt Denorfia delivered the game winning hit driving in Ryan Cimino for his third run of the game. O'Keefe's had a balanced offensive attack in the game with a different player accounting for each of the team's five runs scored and five RBI.

Bank of Southern CT 6, Columbus Auto Body 6

In another back-and-forth contest, the Bank got out to a quick start scoring five runs in the first two innings only to allow Columbus to chip away at the lead and tie the game in the third inning when Chris Sharma drove in two with a double. The Bank's Brendan Moss drove in the go ahead run in the sixth only to see Columbus' Marc Potosky tie it up again with a single scoring Chris Smith. With the score tied after six innings the game was suspended due to the league curfew and will be completed at a later date.

Zingaro and Cretella 7, Columbus Auto Body 1

Zingaro and Cretella's Brett Warner was masterful on the mound allowing only three baserunners while his teammates provided more than enough offensive support. Dave Magani went four-for-four with four runs batted in and John Close Reilly scored three times for the victors.

Baybrook Remodelers 10, A-Plus Plumbing 3

Baybrook's Joe Misionile and Kyle Befus provided the offensive spark the team needed to hand A-Plus just their second loss of the season. Misionile and Befus each had two hits and drove in three for Baybrook while teammate Karl Derbacher, also with two hits, scored three runs. Normally a pitching powerhouse, A-Plus struggled on the mound using five pitchers in the game.

Bank of Southern CT 6, O'Keefe's Academy 1

The Monroe brothers, Tanner and Zach, once again led the charge for the Bank. Zach went three-for-three at the plate while Tanner capitalized on his three hits to score twice and drive in one. Jeff Rotteck pitched a solid game scattering five hits on his way to the complete game victory.
